

Oil and Gas Industry Brings Huge Benefits to Western Australia<sup>1</sup>

1,253 people

directly employed by WA's onshore petroleum industry.

$682 million

in Commonwealth royalties received by the state from the North West shelf project, an increase of 19% on 2017-18.

32%

increase in the volume of LNG produced in WA in 2017-18.

2nd highest volume of natural gas supplied to the domestic market ever recorded.

- 1. Carnarvon Basin
- 2. Browse Basin
- 3. Bonaparte Basin

- 4. Canning Basin
- 5. Officer Basin

- 6. Eucla Basin
- 7. Perth Basin

$19.1 billion

worth of WA's LNG was sold in 2017-18.

39%

increase of the value of WA's petroleum products to $26.6 billion in 2017-18.

#1

LNG is WA's #1 most valuable petroleum product.

$4.28/GJ

was the average price of gas sold into the Dampier to Bunbury Natural Gas pipeline, Parmelia pipeline and Goldfields pipeline in 2017-18, representing a decrease of almost 14% from the 2016-17 average of $4.96/GJ.